About Us

Peninsula Youth Music Society has been successfully running for over 35 years.

The Peninsula Youth Music Society was formed in 1980 as a special enterprise for Music '81.

The Peninsula Youth Music Society is a not-for-profit organization solely run by a dedicated group of volunteers.

The Society also provides a Saturday Morning Music School, a programme to introduce young children to instrumental music studies. This program takes place at Karingal Primary School. The society also runs a Summer Music School in January each year and a Winter Music School in the mid term holidays.

Every Wednesday during school terms

This Orchestra provides a challenging programme for string players. The participants will gain ensemble skills and be introduced to orchestral repertoire. Members of this ensemble must be competent in reading music.

Margaret Conyers is an experienced teacher and performer playing in string quartets and orchestras. Margaret is an instrumental teacher and ensemble director.

Heather Birrell is also an experienced teacher and performer. She teaches violin and viola privately, is a member of a string ensemble and performs with the Frankston Symphony.

Askey Stage Band– Director Joseph Tobias

This programme introduces and develops the skills associated in playing as a member of a stage band. Students joining this group should be competent performers on their instrument and have developed good music reading skills. Joseph started to play the trumpet aged 8 and completed a Bachelor of Music at Monash in 2009. Joseph teaches at both Dromana and Rosebud secondary colleges. Come and join in the fun of making music together.
