HALF SESSIONS

* Two half sessions are costed as ONE full session at $90.

RHYTHM 'n' BEAT 9.30am - 11.00am $55*

Peta Laughlin & Kylie Rendell
Peta has many years of experience in teaching singing and percussion for children. She has taught a range of music programs such as choir and musical production as well as classroom music and is currently teaching at Frankston High School.
Kylie Rendle has been an early childhood music educator for over 13 years, running Mini Maestros (a Kodaly & Orff based pre-school music program) throughout Melbourne and on the Mornington Peninsula.

Children aged 5 and above will learn about music in a fun way and feel the excitement of performing as part of a group.

BIRRELL STRING ORCHESTRA 9.30am - 11.00am $55*

Heather Birrell has been associated with PYMS since its beginning in 1980, being on the committee for the first Summer School. Heather teaches violin and viola and has a long time commitment with the Frankston Symphony Orchestra. Heather will be assisted by Cathy Hughes, a Suzuki Violin Teacher.

Students working with Heather and Cathy will have the opportunity to further develop their music skills. Players up to AMEB grade 2.

MOVEMENT & DANCE 11.30am - 1.00pm $55*

Tahlia Sweatman is an experienced dancer and teacher and currently manages the dance studio Creations Dance School. She has specialised in using movement as an artistic expression. Tahlia will explore musical concepts and develop students' sensitivity to music through dance.

For students aged 5 and above.

SING-A-SONG 11.30am - 1.00pm $55*

Justine Beach has many years of experience in teaching singing through a range of music programs. She said that "the joy we feel when performing in a group is sometimes overwhelming and I love sharing that experience with children". Currently Justine is teaching at Balcombe Grammar.

Justine will support participants to explore their vocal abilities and give them a sound basis to continue to enjoy music through singing.

For students aged 5 to 9.

FULL SESSIONS

TRY AN INSTRUMENT 9.30am - 1.00pm $90

Sally Wickes, Joseph Tobias and Georgia Stibbard will give participants the opportunity to have a practical introductory experience on woodwind, brass and string instruments. At the end of the week students will perform as an ensemble. This "hands on" try will help students make an informed decision about which instrument to study, thus making it an especially important program for students entering Year 7 in 2014.

No experience required. For students aged 8 and above.

VOCAL : MUSIC THEATRE 9.30am - 1.00pm $90

Monica Royal has extensive experience as a performing musician, teacher and is currently Director of Music at Wardle House, Toorak College. Monica will be supported by an accomplished musician and teacher, Heather Wickes.

PERCUSSIVE BEAT 9.30am - 1.00pm $90

Damian Royal is a highly experienced music teacher and a professional exponent of the Carl Orff music education method which uses percussion as an introduction to the world of music. Damian is currently Director of Music at MLC Junior School.

This group will be involved in a variety of percussion activities through which the participants will develop rhythmic skills as well as percussive performance skills.

For ages 9 and above.

CONYERS STRING ORCHESTRA 9.30am - 1.00pm $90

Margaret Conyers comes from a varied musical background ranging from the Junior Victorian Symphony Orchestra to the Australian Youth Orchestra. Professional work has included touring with diverse shows like the Leningrad Kirov Ballet Company, Bee Gees, Lisa Minelli, Dusty Springfield, Scottish Fiddle work and the best experience of all playing for Sammy Davis Junior.

Enjoy playing string music in a variety of styles from folk to classical. For students with AMEB grade 3 and above.

CONCERT BAND 9.30am - 1.00pm $90

Jenny Stevenson, teacher of music at Toorak College is a highly experienced teacher, performer and conductor. She has performed with many small and large ensembles including the Frankston Symphony Orchestra.

Students with good music reading skills will enjoy a modern band program which will cover many music styles presented by a fun loving conductor.

STAGE BAND 9.30am - 1.00pm $90

Leon de Bruin is a well known and respected director of jazz and concert bands. He has been conducting award winning bands at Frankston High School for many years.

This group will focus on stage and big band repertoire, with the opportunity for participants to explore the skill of improvisation.

Suggested standard AMEB grade 4 and above.
